The Sominee for the Vice-Presidency on the Endical Ticket Serenaded. and Responds. Promising "Glorious Triumph" to Himself.

New York, June 17.-A special to the Times from Garrisons, New York, says: Last evening the Republican candidate for the Vice-Presidency, William A. Wheeler, who is at present a member of the board of visitors to West Point, was serenaded by the Republicans of this place and Cold Springs, and spoke as follows:

"I thank you gentlemen for your congratulations, for an honor which is probably as unexpected to you as to myself, for by me. I was not oblivious of the fact that my name had been mentioned by warm friends who desired my success, but I neither looked nor hoped for such an overwhelming evidence of the the convention's favor, but I have been a soldier in the Republican ranks foo long and have enjoyed its confidence too much not to be aware of the high responelbility which accompanies that weil known, it needs additional testi- confidence. To be nominated in times like these by the great party which, despite its occasional shorcomings, represents in its fullest extent the intelligence, the patriotism and conscience of the country, is indeed an honor. The so-called tidal wave of 1874, which swept the Democratic party into power in the lower house of congress, has resulted in demonstrating to the American people the utter unfitness of that party for every one of the duties required of it. For the past few months the Democratic majority in the house of representatives has been on trial before the nation, and the nation is ready to render a verdict. The Democratic party has been false to its promises, false to its duties, and false to the opportunities dependence, and it is to the cousign the government in the future. Do not doubt, gentlemen, that in the coming canvass we shall achieve a splendid triumph with that honored soldier and patriotic citizen, Governor Hayes at our head and the entire Republican party of all shades and opinions suporting him. We have but to do our duty as honest voters and good cit/zens and victory is ours. Again, gentiemen, I thank you for this manifestation of your ap-

From an Geessianal Correspondent of the BOLIVAR, June 16 -A correspondent of the Avalanche, writing from this place under date of June 12th, gives in his letter some of the conclusions to which he has arrived from observations made, in regard to political matters in this re-gion. It is news indeed to the people here that a legislature could be found that would elect at the same time Ex-Governor Harris and Colosel Key to the United States senate. It a sufficient to say that they are, if the expression may be sllowed, the antipods of each other in Democratic policy, taking the course of the latter in the senate during the discussion of the Mississippi investigation as a criterion by which to judge him. Governor Harris has many friends in this county who, believing that he is not excelled in political sagacity and honesty by any public man in the State, would be pleased to see him seat to the senate of the United States. A great dea too much rain has fallen for the last few days, though the prospect for good crops is superb. The wheat crop is fair, and most of it harvested. The health of the county is good, and the people have done, and are doing much hard work. Our schools are closing after tolerably successful sessions, as regards patronage.

BRUTAL OUTRAGE.

from a Special Correspondent of the Appeal. COFFEEVILLE, MISS., June 18, 1876 .-I'wenty-five or thirty undisguised white men went to the fail at this piace, at one o'clock last night, demanded and took from the jailer the keys. theu took one woman, one man and one little boy-all coloredfrom the jail to the woods, about one mile distant, and shot them The not is heartily condemned by all good citizens, and every effort will be made to punish the perpetrators. The negroes were in jail for assaulting and badly cutting an old, descepted white lady, Mrs. Halle; she is not yet dead. There is no clue to the parties doing the killing. The would-be murderers merited death, but should have gotten it at the hands of the law. THE GRAND TOWER.

The Facts as to her Collision with the Shippers Own-What the Pas-sengers say.

ON BOARD STEAMER GRAND TOWER, June 15 .- At a meeting of the passengers of the Anchor line steamer Grand Tower, held on board, on her trip from Vickeburg to St. Louis, after leaving

Cairo, June 15, 1876, it was Resolved, That we, the passengers of he steamer Grand Tower, having been present at the time of the collision between her and the steamer Shippers Own, when the latter was sunk opposite Cairo, in the Onio river, and witnesses of the action of Captain George W. Lennox and his crew in the midst of the excitement of the collision, whereby the lives of the passengers and crew of the nfortunate steamboat were saved. Resolved. That we take pleasure in testifying to the coolness and exercise of excellent judgment on the part of Captain Lennox, and the admirable manner in which the officers of the Grand Tower made instant effort to save valuable lives. At the time of the accident but few of the passengers had retired, the majority being cognizant of all the facts in the case, and we are satisfied from this personal knowledge that no blame can be attached to any officer of the steamer Grand Tower, the collision being unavoidable. When it occurred, and the bow of the Grand Tower entered the hull of the Shippers Own, Captain Lennox immediately ordered his own steamer to remain stationary whereby the gap was filled, preventing the injured steamer from so quickly fill ing, and enabling most of the passengers and crew to escape to the Grand Tower. Then, as the Shippers Own careened in sinking, he promptly backed the Grand Tower to avoid injury to his own boat from the sinking steamer, and with equal discretion and promptness came to her again to take off all who had been left on board, whereby, we believe, there was no lives lost by reason of the un-fortunate accident. We cannot too highly compliment Captain Lennox and his officers and crew for their corteous and kindly care for the comfort and enjoyment of their passengers, and it is but justice to honor them for their coolness and judgment in the time of excitement and danger. Resolved, That a copy of these resolu tions be given to Captain Lennex for himself and officers of the Grand Tower, a copy be sent to the president of the line, and that they be published in the | $73 87. daily papers of St. Louis and Memphis.
